

Good practices in pre-departure and reintegration services for female migrant workers : in case of Thailand

Presented by : Ms. Nakaprapa Bamrungsuk
The Office of Overseas Employment Administration,
Department of Employment,
Ministry of Labour
Thailand

Present

- 1. Policies and Regulations
 - 2. Situation of work abroad
 - 3. Preparation for workers before travel overseas
 - 4. Services after reintegration
-

Policies of working oversea

- 1. Increase income of the population
- 2. Decrease expenses of job seekers
- 3. Promote and extend work opportunities for job seekers
- 4. Increase awareness of and reduce human trafficking

Work overseas legally

- 1. Through the Department of Employment
- 2. Through private recruitment agencies
- 3. Through local employers who send their employees to work overseas
- 4. Through local employers Who dispatch their employees to be trained abroad
- 5. Self arrangement

Work situation overseas

1. In 2013, 23,327 women laborers , or 17.87 %, work overseas,
2. 1,441 have been sent by the government, 5,466 have been sent by private agencies, 1,419 have been taken by employer to work overseas, 1,638 have been sent by employers for training overseas, and 3,722 travel by themselves
3. Most favorable 5 countries in the Middle East are UAE, Israel, Bahrain, Qatar, Kuwait.
4. For Europe, it is Russia, Sweden, Finland, Norway, Hungary
5. For Asia, it is Taiwan, Japan, South Korea, Hong kong and China

Preparation for Pre-departure laborers

1. Exploring job market opportunities, and labor cooperation with receiving countries.
2. Opening registration centers for job seekers who intend to work overseas
3. Legislation and regulations to supervise private recruitment agencies.
4. Promoting business ethics of private recruitment agencies.
5. Opening a government channel to dispatch laborers to Taiwan with low cost
6. Training workers to work abroad.
7. Cooperation with Government Banks for credit for labor abroad
8. Regulating minimum wages and welfare which Thai laborers should receive while working overseas

Reintegration services

1. Occupational guidance
2. Recruitment Services
3. Labour funding, according to the IM JAPAN programme
4. Cooperating with the South Korean Government, according to the “HAPPY RETURN” programme

For more information please contact :

Office of Overseas Employment Administration

Department of Employment

Mitr – Maitree Road, Dindaeng District, Bangkok, Thailand 10400

Tel : +66 2 245 1034 Fax : +66 2 245 9428

www.overseas.doe.go.th

E-mail : iom_overseas@hotmail.com