Please note that these outcome documents are a result of exhaustive and extensive discussions during the Concluding Senior Officials Meeting (CSOM).

I thank you for actively taking part in the drafting of the documents. Some of the Philippine comments were adopted verbatim, some were adopted but with different language formulations and some were not. After a lengthy consultation process, the Philippines together with the other 20 member economies arrived at a consensus on the documents.

I enjoin you to take note of instructions, policies and initiatives that are relevant and within the purview of your agency mandates and working group engagements, and which will be carried forward during our host year in 2015.

Thank you for a successful APEC 2014 and I look forward to a more robust and active participation as we take the leadership in driving APEC's agenda in 2015 and beyond.

Very truly yours,
